Gospel Glimpses - Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

The right place at the right time

Success is often a matter of being in the right place at the right time. So we work very hard at building contacts, to be seen in powerful circles. It takes serious time and effort, but we make sure we get where we need to be.

But what happens when the right place for faith conflicts with our career or life plans? When Jesus returned to Nazareth, He went straight to the synagogue. The building was filled with faithful seekers, longing for the Messiah, praying and waiting. Through long years of suffering they stayed close to God's power, clinging to the "right places". And now these loyal believers were there to hear and witness the fulfillment of prophecy. What a day of celebration! And what sorrow for those whose business or activities was more important. A powerful reminder for us today. We too wait for our Savior. He has taught us the signs and the prophecy, so that we can faithfully watch and wait. But if Jesus came today, would He find you praying in the temple? When the prophecy we have been given is fulfilled, will you be in the right place at the right time?
